

INCLUSION BY DESIGN IMPACT AWARDS IN SPORT AND PHYSICAL ACTIVITY

“Promoting innovation, access and inclusion in sport and physical activity for all”

An initiative of the Global Partnership on Children with Disabilities Task Force on Physical Activity and Sport

The Inclusion by Design Impact Awards in Sport and Physical Activity recognize individuals/ organizations that have developed innovative approaches to building an inclusive culture in sport and physical activity. The top 3 innovations will receive monetary awards intended to further promote and spread the use and implementation of the innovation.

- First Place US$1000
- Second Place US$500
- Third Place US$250

Innovations must be user-designed, locally driven, sustainable, currently in use, and focused on children or adolescents.

An international panel of distinguished experts will review the applications based on relevance, innovative character, impact, sustainability, transferability/replicability, cost-benefit relationship and involvement of partners. The international panel includes:

Ivory Duncan, GPCwd Youth Council

Jack Eyers, Model & Advocate

Mariusz Damentko, Special Olympics

Martin Block, IFAPA

Nancy McLennan, UNESCO

Todd Nicholson, International Paralympic Committee

Victor Santiago Pineda, World Enabled & Haas Institute for a Fair and Inclusive Society
