

Inclusive Health Bill of Rights

1. All people have the right to barrier-free access to health promotion programs and services offered within their communities.
2. All people have the right to navigate barrier-free within fitness facilities, utilize inclusive equipment, and participate fully in group fitness settings.
3. All people have the right to accessible green space within their communities including parks and playgrounds.
4. All people have the right to access opportunities within their communities that promote both indoor and outdoor active leisure and recreational activities.
5. All children have the right to full involvement in daily physical education activities and after school sports participation.
6. All people have the right to improved infrastructure that supports active commuting opportunities.
7. All people have the right to accessible signage in order to navigate and interact effectively within their communities.
8. All people have the right to increased access to public transportation.
9. All people have the right to access and purchase healthy and low-cost food and beverages in public service venues including schools and worksites.
10. All people have the right to education and access to healthy and low-cost food options within their communities.